

SOCIETY IN NORFOLK

Luncheon in Honor of Miss Lambert of St. Louis.

SEVERAL CARD CLUBS

The Monday Card Club was Entertained by Miss Rosa Myers at Her Residence in Bute St.—Last Conviviality of Old Point Club.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., April 25.—An attractive luncheon was given Tuesday by Misses Fannie and Mary Rogers at their home in Ghent. The guest of honor was Miss Lillian Lambert, of St. Louis. Covers were laid for six, and those present were Miss Lambert, Miss Alice Kelly, Miss Lucy Baylor, Miss Besse Grandy and the Misses McCormick.

Mrs. J. Jett McCormick entertained at cards Tuesday afternoon at her home in York Street. Among the guests were Miss Lucy Lee Brooks, of Alexandria, Miss Frazier, of Staunton; Miss Besse Conrad, of Winchester; Miss Florence Wheat, of Berryville; Miss Jane Carter, of Warrenton; Miss Kit Newbill, Miss Alice Williams and Miss Nellie Little.

The Monday Card Club was entertained by Miss Rosa Myers at her residence in Bute Street. Eight-hand euchre was played and the first prize, a brass plaque, was awarded to Mrs. Thomas Purdie, and the consolation, a piece of Baltimore, to Miss Fannie Culppepper, who kept score, received a souvenir. Miss Myers' guests were Mrs. E. B. Hodges, Mrs. Charles H. Wood, Mrs. T. A. Purdie, Mrs. Alfred G. Eldridge, Mrs. Hubbard, Miss Mabel, Miss Minnette Chapman, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Miss Fannie Culppepper and Miss Ruth Chapman.

Mrs. Junius F. Lynch received the Embroidery Club Tuesday morning at her home in Bute Street, and the morning passed in chatting over the fancy work.

Those present were Mrs. Charles H. Wood, Mrs. T. S. Taylor, Mrs. Kirkland Ruffin, Mrs. Richard McMillan, Jr., Miss Lizzie Talleferro, Miss Annie Henry and Miss Lulu Heath.

The Old Point German Club gave the last of its cordons Monday evening at the Chamberlin Hotel. Milton Elliott led the couples through the waltzes, and the music was played by the Old Point Band. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh N. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hughes, Mrs. Holt W. Page, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Charles Webster acted as sponsors.

Among the dancers were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Arelasto, Jr., Mrs. Higginbotham, Commander and Mrs. C. K. Curtis, Lieutenant and Mrs. Crenshaw, Miss Emily Allyn, Miss Ruth Ferebee, Miss Elizabeth Bowdoin, Miss Stanley Atkins, of Richmond; Miss Sarah Harris, Miss Wythe, Miss Besse Conrad, of Baltimore; Miss Helen Taylor, Miss Lucy Baylor, Miss Ethel Hardy, Miss Virginia Jordan, of Suffolk; Miss Lottie Wilson, of Smithfield; Miss Eugene Bain, Miss Kit Newbill, Miss Mary Lou Cooke, Miss Josephine Cooke, Miss Besse Grandy, Miss Alice Kelly, Misses Alice and Corinna Truxton, Miss Jane Serpell, Miss Belle Nash, Miss Hattie Willis, of Cambridge, Md.; Miss Lambert, of St. Louis; Miss Josephine Gibson, of New York; Miss Goodwin, of Washington; Miss Brooks, Miss Courtney Bridges, of Richmond; Misses Margaret and Alice, of Old Point; Miss Lucy Brooks, Miss Clara Ashton, Miss Minnie Boykin, of Smithfield; Miss Alice Makiely, of Edenton; Miss Ellen Bell, Miss Frazer, of Staunton; Miss Elizabeth Winn, Miss Byra Page, Miss Johnson, Miss Lela Reed and Misses Ruth and Wood, of New York; T. F. Taylor, Jr., of Ridgeley, Porter, Goldsboro and Albert Serpell, Wallington Hardy, John D. Winn, Dr. J. P. Woodward, Bush, Walke Truxton, Charles Bowdoin, Horace Hogard, H. G. Smith, J. P. Turner, Milton Elliott, Caldwell Dey, Southgate Taylor, W. C. Young, Tucker, Walter, R. P. Gage, Tunstall Smith, William A. Wren, R. B. Pearn, R. M. Hughes, Jr., W. D. Sharp, George Sargent, Garnett Jordan, George Batts, William H. Bell, W. W. Old, Jr., Dr. Herbert Old, George McG. Goodridge, Otis Barron, Kenney and Stuart Johns, Blount, Hunter, Richard Cooke, Leslie, S. S. Taylor, J. E. Taylor, E. Taylor, W. H. Taylor, Jr., T. W. Taylor, Jr., Galloway, Catesby Jones, W. A. Rose, James Hollowell, W. L. Pearce, Cole, W. S. Royster, Dr. R. N. Burgess, Tabb, Henry Kira, Carney, J. M. Woodside, William Hedges, Heth Tyler, Geo. Reed, George Kelly, George Payne and W. I. Price.

Miss Stanley Atkins, of Richmond, who has been visiting Miss Elizabeth Bowdoin in Ghent, is now the guest of Miss Emily Allyn in Bute Street.

Miss Alice Makiely has returned to Edenton, N. C., after being the guest of Miss Fannie Culppepper in Bute Street.

Miss Caroline Hunter, who has been the guest of Mrs. John Wilkinson in York Street, has returned to Bel Air, Md.

Mrs. E. W. Witche has returned from Petersburg, where she has been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Burwell and Miss Daisy Burwell left Monday for their home in New York, after being the guest of Mrs. James Thompson in Brown Street.

Miss Katherine Michaux, of Richmond, is the guest of Mrs. Junius F. Lynch in Bute Street.

Mrs. E. T. Lamb has returned from Williamsburg.

Master De Bee Taylor returned Sunday to Washington.

Mrs. Besse Conrad, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry M. Little, in Ghent, has returned to her home in Winchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hodgson are visiting Mrs. Francis Hodgson Burnett-Townsend, in Washington.

Mrs. W. H. Venable and his family are visiting in Baltimore.

Miss Patty Willis, of Charleston, W. Va., is the guest of the Misses Tucker, of College Place.

Miss Nan Freeman and Miss Kit Newbill have returned to Miss Duval's School in Staunton.

Miss Baynie Taylor, who has been visiting Miss Corinna Truxton, returned Tuesday to Washington.

Miss Margaret Venable, of Marion, Va., is the guest of Mrs. Sherer, in Dunmore Street.

Mrs. Young and Miss Minnette Chapman, of Knoxville, Tenn., are the guests of Mrs. Alfred G. Eldridge, in Freeman Street.

Mrs. Cotton, of Petersburg, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. S. Garnett, in Ghent.

Miss Lela Mayo has returned from West Virginia.

Among those who attended the Taylor-Bellmont marriage at Randolph, Md., were Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Waldron, Miss Besse Waldron, Misses Kennedy, Henry Emily Taylor, Miss Edith Tunk, Mr. Washington Taylor, Jr., and Mr. J. A. Tuck.

MAIN AND FOURTEENTH STS. FISHER'S, MAIN AND FOURTEENTH STS.

A SCHOOL OF FASHION!

Our store is a veritable School of Fashion. You will find here at all times the latest ideas in the Cut of a Coat, the Shape of the Trousers, the Right Kink to the Vest.

Good dressers daily come here to learn what's what and what's correct in clothes.

HERE'S THE NEWEST HERE'S THE BEST

The Prices are Prices You'll Like to Pay.

$5, $7.50, $10, $12.50, $15, $18, $20, $25

will do wonders here in fitting you out just as you would like to be fixed.

CLOTHES FOR THE LITTLE FELLOWS.

We will make mother's eyes twinkle with delight if she will bring the little man here and let him try on one of our new Boys' Spring Suits—suits from 7 to 17—in Norfolk Suits and Double-Breasted Suits; complete assortment for

$1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00.

MEN'S SHIRT SALE ALL THE WEEK.

We are showing all this week the greatest line of shirts that were ever shown in the city in Madras, Percale, Bedford Cord, Plain and Pleated-Bosom, fancy colors, neat stripes and plain white—50c

Star Clothing House
CORNER FIFTH AND MAIN STS.

BATTERY PARK HOTEL GERMAN

Miss Roosevelt, Who Has Been a Guest at Baltimore, Has Returned to Washington.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 25.—The special social event of the week was the Easter german, which took place Monday evening at the Battery Park Hotel. The dancers numbered more than one hundred and among those present were:

Madames, Ruland, Craig, Grinnam, Woodward, Carter, Humphrey, Thorn, Osborne, Misses Acheson, Hamilton, Brady, Mary Carter, the Misses Carter, Misses Jones, Craig, Randolph, Brown, Scott, Sumner, Sites, Doe Robinson, Pennington, Carfield, Wholen, Chaffee, Ray Grant, Branch, Ruland, Baker, Daisy Branch, Adams, Scholzer, Drummond, Towars, Martin, Porter, Steele, Messers, Bomar, Breans, Boylan, Barton, Caldwell, Dickson, Elliott, Fuller, Gilbert, Green, Keown, Keown, Keown, Long, Little, McFarland, Norris Osborne, Toll, Price, Bonum, McCombs, Smith, Sweeney, Stike-leather, Adams, Fitzpatrick, Gudre, Ruland, Wilkins, Swenson, Darby, Kelly, Bryan, Somerwell.

A card party was given Monday evening at Battery Park Hotel, and among the players were:

Mrs. Augustus Van Wyck, Mrs. Dohrmann, Mrs. Laub, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Humphreys, Miss Lamb, Mrs. James W. Osborne, returned Monday to Washington.

Programmes have been issued for the Southern Golf Tournament, which is to be held at the Seaside, a country club May 20th to 23rd inclusive. A large number of handsome prizes are offered. Previous to the opening of the tournament the Southern Golf Association will meet at Battery Park Hotel in executive session and elect new officers. It is expected that several hundred golfers will be present. During the tournament there will be a continuous round of social events, including a ball at the Manor, luncheons, etc.

Miss Alice Roosevelt, who has been Mrs. George Vanderbilt's guest at Baltimore, returned Monday to Washington.

Commander and Mrs. Cowles, of Washington, who have also been guests of Mrs. Vanderbilt, have returned. The members of Mrs. Vanderbilt's house party are still at Baltimore House.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrington of Lynchburg, who have been spending their honeymoon at the Battery Park Hotel, have returned to their home.

Mrs. E. A. Fuller, of Richmond, is here on her way from New Orleans to her home.

There are several social events planned for next week, including a bowling tournament and a dance to be given by the Albemarle Club.

Mr. Marion Cobb is planning to give a large house party at the Roberts Cottage.

IN SCOTTSVILLE
Dance Given in Honor of Miss Annie Munday, of Wingina.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SCOTTSVILLE, VA., April 25.—A dance was given on Friday night at "Bella Haven" in honor of Miss Annie Munday, of Wingina. Those present were: Misses May Beal, Parke Harris, Marjorie Harris, Lela Beale, Ethel Burgess, Dimple Blair, Lela Pitts, Lottie Pitts, Clara Pitts, Corinna Burgess, Nora Dillra, Annie Munday, Mary Gillespie, Mary Dull, Dr. James Hart, Francis Harris, Will Lewis, S. R. Gault, Leslie Leckie, Tom Leckie, Ben Dorrier, Charlie Dorrier, Walter Dorrier, Revere Nicholas, Jack Reed, Henry Harris, Lindsay Burgess, Gies Staples and Marion Pitts.

The young ladies were charmingly gowned and made as pretty a picture as one might wish to see. Delicious fruits and ices were served.

Dr. D. O. Clements, who has been visiting his sister, Miss Margaret Clements, of the Home Hotel, left on Wednesday morning for his home in Gloucester, by way of Baltimore.

Miss Margaret Leckie has returned home, after closing her school in Georgia.

The Scottsville Band on Saturday night gave tuneful serenades at "Bell Haven" and "Chester."

Little Katharine Fox, two years of age, who recently broke her collar-bone by a fall from the porch of her home, is improving rapidly. The little one seems to have escaped without serious injury, as she recently swallowed some cement without serious results.

Miss N. M. Hill has recently purchased in Richmond a number of new books for the circulating library here. These arrived on Tuesday, the 21st, and will be catalogued at once.

Miss Annie Munday, of Wingina, has been a guest at "Chester" this week.

Mrs. H. M. Roberts, of Esmont, was a guest of Mrs. J. R. Daniel this week.

Mrs. C. C. Harford and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Fannie Harford, recently returned from Clinton Forge, will leave soon for Waynesboro, Pa.

Miss Mable Pitts, of Arvon, visited relatives here this week.

WEEK AT THE CHAMBERLIN

Many Virginians and West Virginians at Old Point.

CAME TO THE LAUNCHING

The Hop at the Chamberlin on Saturday Night Was a Most Enjoyable Affair—A Number of Richmond People Were Present.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., April 25.—Many Virginians and West Virginians were at Old Point early in the week, having come to attend the launching on Saturday at the Newport News shipyard of the cruiser West Virginia. The Governor of West Virginia and his staff, most of whom were accompanied by their wives and daughters stayed over until Sunday afternoon while Governor Montague and his party returned to Richmond Saturday afternoon. Saturday morning two companies of coast artillery from Fort Monroe were sent to the Chamberlin to escort Gov. White and party to the Point, where they witnessed dress parade.

The hop at the Chamberlin Saturday night was a very large and charming one. Among the dancers were Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Bowe, Miss Margaret Shields, Miss Lina Shields, Miss Elise Stokes, Elmer Hopkins, Thomas Leary, Ben Tullamore and Robert Whitehurst of Richmond who were at the Chamberlin until Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Tyler and Miss Daisy Tyler of New York had as their guests at the Chamberlin on Wednesday President Lyon G. Tyler, of William and Mary College, and Mrs. Tyler.

The rains which have been so frequent since the beginning of April have put the links at the golf club in rather a bad condition, consequently tennis on the court of the Chamberlin has taken the place of golf to some extent. The bridge whist flounders as an enthusiastic as ever and are always to be seen playing their favorite game. Mrs. Allen, wife of former United States District Attorney Edgar A. Allen, entertained the Fort Monroe Card Club at the Chamberlin on Thursday evening.

Miss Jane Hawley of New York gave a dinner before the hop on Wednesday evening at which her guests were Mrs. Mary Lou Cooke and Thomas Tanner, of Norfolk, Mrs. Frank Brown and Miss Lucy Brown of Old Point, and Lieutenants Edward Hill, Robert McMillan and Richard Ellis of Fort Monroe.

The marriage of Miss Eda Totten and

Lieutenant William Pierce Ennis, U. S. A., occurred this afternoon at the home of Captain Ira Haines, U. S. A., an uncle of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony there was a large reception, after which Lieutenant and Mrs. Ennis left for Fort Hamilton, New York, where the former is stationed.

IN WOODSTOCK.
New Presbyterian Chapel and Annex to Lutheran Church.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WOODSTOCK, VA., April 25.—The tenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Childes, of Strasburg, was celebrated on Saturday night. A large number of guests were present during the evening which was spent very pleasantly. A sumptuous supper was served by the host and hostess.

The bi-weekly meeting of the Tuesday Club of Woodstock was held on Tuesday night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Rumsburg on South Main Street. A large number of the members were present and during the evening they were served with lunch by the host.

The work on the annex being built to the Lutheran Church at this place at a cost of about $2,000 is being pushed rapidly along, and fair progress has been made thus far. It is expected the work will be finished by fall.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

Wedding Gifts

The abundance of artistic, suitable gifts to be had here—all of assured quality, unique and exclusive in design—appeal to your taste for the elegant.

Our consistent prices should also attract you—if you are interested in approaching weddings.

Lumsden,
731 E. Main.

Lieutenant William Pierce Ennis, U. S. A., occurred this afternoon at the home of Captain Ira Haines, U. S. A., an uncle of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony there was a large reception, after which Lieutenant and Mrs. Ennis left for Fort Hamilton, New York, where the former is stationed.

IN WOODSTOCK.

New Presbyterian Chapel and Annex to Lutheran Church.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WOODSTOCK, VA., April 25.—The tenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Childes, of Strasburg, was celebrated on Saturday night. A large number of guests were present during the evening which was spent very pleasantly. A sumptuous supper was served by the host and hostess.

The bi-weekly meeting of the Tuesday Club of Woodstock was held on Tuesday night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Rumsburg on South Main Street. A large number of the members were present and during the evening they were served with lunch by the host.

The work on the annex being built to the Lutheran Church at this place at a cost of about $2,000 is being pushed rapidly along, and fair progress has been made thus far. It is expected the work will be finished by fall.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

The first services to be held in the Sydney Lauchlin memorial chapel erected by a concert by the Presbyterian Church here were conducted by Rev. Dr. P. L. Stephenson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church on last Sunday morning. This chapel was erected by Messrs. O. S. and William Laughlin of Canton, O., in memory of their mother, at a cost of about $3,000.

CHARLOTTE SOCIETY

"Old Maids' Convention" on Thursday Night Enjoyed.

WEDDINGS OF INTEREST

"The Tour of the Nation," Conducted Under the Auspices of the Thompson Orphanage Guild, Was Most Unique and Interesting.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 25.—Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Clarkson entertained at dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Watt. It was quite an enjoyable affair. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Watt, Captain and Mrs. Forsyth, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Falsen, Mrs. Wade H. Harris and Messrs. D. A. Tompkins, J. P. Caldwell, E. L. Keeler and E. B. Springs.

Mrs. R. O. Alexander gave an "at home" at her beautiful residence in Dilworth Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Adams entertained a large number of guests Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Grace Benson, of Hartwell, Ga., who is a niece of Mrs. Adams. The feature of the evening was a novel guessing contest, the prizes being won by Miss Dora Allen Sales and Mr. Thomas Alexander.

At the First Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church Thursday night the Young People's Society gave quite a unique entertainment. That delightful burlesque, "The Old Maids' Convention," afforded an evening of innocent fun for all who attended. Some of the transformations were wonderful, and fun ran riot from start to finish.

Mrs. Charles W. Tillot issued invitations yesterday to an at home on Tuesday evening, the 28th.

Miss Ellie Mason, daughter of Mrs. C. A. Mason, of this city, and Mr. H. L. Ellerbe, formerly of this city, but now of Columbia, S. C., will be united in marriage Tuesday evening, April 28th. The bride-to-be is one of the most popular young ladies of Charlotte.